

From: RM Wheeler
To: Microsoft ATR
Date: 1/24/02 3:06pm
Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I believe that the currently proposed settlement is flawed in a fundamental way. Namely, it does not prevent Microsoft from bundling web browsers and other application software into its operating system. While there are measures in place to discourage this kind of practice, the settlement as written does not take adequate steps to ensure that this practice will absolutely cease. Any just and reasonable settlement to this lawsuit must address the prevention of future attempt to bundle software into Microsoft operating systems.

Raymond Wheeler
Berkeley, CA